Judi,
Best wishes to a sweet friend. I hope we have fun in our future years at H.H.S. like we did this year.
Remember all the fun we've had together this last year, the ballgame, walks, bike rides, our talks, phone calls and such. I hope we have as many classes together next year as we did this year and I hope we do some more bulletin boards like our other great creations. I hope you have a lot of fun at the prom! Remember Geometry class, we couldn't get. I'll always remember the way we got to the shows - wasn't we had workers though - Oh - and our hikes - especially when we all those problems we couldn't get. I'll always remember the of fun next year. I hope we will have a lot friends next year. I hope we will be Loads of luck

HISTORY

In the fall of 1954 we entered Hillsboro High School as green freshmen. The first thing we did was to elect officers. They were Gene Levy, President; Judy Haenel, Vice-President; Mary Jordan, Secretary; Bill Sandman, Treasurer. For Advisors we had Mrs. Dunham and Mr. White. As Student Council representatives we elected Bill Kouba and David Kolowrat. We survived the very much anticipated and dreaded initiation; and when Homecoming rolled around Bill Kouba and Judy Herdliska were our representatives. Gene Levy and Lou Ann Snyder represented our class at the Prom.

The next year was put into high gear with the election of our sophomore officers. Marvin Havlik was our President and Bill Kouba was our Vice-President, Karen Novy acted as Secretary and Gene Levy as Treasurer completed the offices. We ran the Freshmen through the mill when we gave them their initiation. Our Student Council representatives that year were David Kolowrat and Bernard Cesnik and our advisors were Miss Kamperschroer and Mr. White. Homecoming came up with Sandra Subera and John Dooley representing our class and Darlene Slaback and Marvin Havlik were our prom representatives.

Junior Year!!! This was the year of our most anticipated event---the Junior Prom. We also received our class rings. Four boys were our officers: Bill Kouba, President; John Dooley, Vice-President; Don Stanley, Secretary; and Bernard Cesnik, Treasurer. Student Council representatives were Sherlin Durkee and Gene Levy. Advisors were again Miss Kamperschroer and Mr. White. JoAnn Steckel and Don Stanley represented us at Homecoming, and Bill Kouba and Judy Herdliska were the proud king and queen at our prom. For the Sweetheart Dance we chose Jean Santas and Sherlin Durkee to represent us.

Our Senior year, the dignified class of 1958 elected John Dooley as President; David Kolowrat, Vice-President; Wendell Shore, Secretary; and John Santas as Treasurer. Student Council representatives were Sherlin Durkee and Judy Haenel. King Bernard Cesnik and Queen Jean Santas reigned over the Homecoming festivities. We chose Mary Ellen Stanek as our Ski Queen Candidate that year and Judy Haenel and Wendell Shore represented our class at the Sweetheart Dance. Our class play, "Beans For Breakfast" was a huge success. Senior class representatives at the Prom were Mary Jordan and David Kolowrat.

After a riotous class trip to Wisconsin Dells we settled down to the last night of our high school career---commencement.

WILL

We, the Class of 1958, being of sound mind--in spite of the opinion of our teachers--do hereby will and bequeath the following valued possessions to the poor, unsuspecting souls listed below:

CONRAD LAWRENCE leaves his individual and private techniques in solving problems in Algebra to Bill Henthorne, with the recommendation that he also have an answer book handy.

MARGARET BLAHA leaves her roaring, awe-inspiring voice to Beverly Waldron, in addition to six lessons in voice control.

JUDY THOMPSON bequeaths her solemn, dignified attitude and her interest in the serious side of life to Pat Briedenstein.

JoANN STECKEL leaves her ability to write Shorthand to anyone who wants it--no, on second thought, she'll keep it.

DON JANECEK leaves all his test marks to Bill Turnipseed, in hopes they will help him in the future.

JOHN SANTAS leaves his remarkable memory to some one in the Junior Class, but forgets who.

JIM VOGT bequeaths his studious habits to Doc Shore, with the understanding they will be returned to him if he goes to college.

ELONNA WINCHELL leaves her surplus chewing gum to Judy Nelson, on the condition that she use it only for sticking papers together.

BERNITA HARPOLD leaves a desk full of candy wrappers to anyone who cares to sell them for old paper.

BILL KOUBA leaves his fuzzy (so he says) hair to Mr. Schroeder.

DAVE KOLOWRAT leaves his position as teacher's pet to Jerry Ellis, with a ten page theme on "How To Take It From Teachers."

ANN SMITH offers to play a solo on her bass clarinet for anyone who can endure it.

LARRY FRANKS offers a ride in his car, to any girl who will buy the gasoline from his father.

SONDRA VLASAK leaves her beautiful "blond" hair to anyone who can afford to buy the peroxide.

KENT BRANDT leaves his alarm clock to Steve Subera; said alarm clock guaranteed to never go off, regardless of the time for which it is set.

LEO VERBSKY leaves his skill at whispering out loud to anyone who gets a back seat in Social Problems class.

SANY McCOY leaves her flirtatious smiles to Mr. Kaczmarek.

KAREN NOVY leaves her position as first clarinet to anyone who can stand the strain.

JOHN DOOLEY wills himself to Mary Ann Jordan and she wills herself to him.

JIM LISKA leaves his ability to love all the girls and still stay unattached, to Paul Stanek.

DON STANLEY leaves his Elvis haircut (if he decides to cut it), to Mr. Voelz.

PATSY BURCH leaves her long, brunette hair to Geneva Winchell.

BEVERLY HAUGH leaves her worries and woes of F.H.A. president to some poor Junior girl who gets the office.

GENE LEVY bequeaths his class ring to Nancy Ravenscroft.

VICTOR MITCHELL leaves his farm and all the cows to Jim Greely.

JUDY HAENEL wills her ability to get along with the farmer's son, to Virginia Eastman.

CAROL BARBOUR leaves her pep and vigorous actions to Sharon Lorch.

SHERLIN DURKEE wills his ability to take sports and participate in practically all other activities and still get top marks, to Francis Sinkule.

JUDY HERDLISKA wills her dimples to Doris Stanek.

MARILYN McCOY leaves her "I said it and I'm glad" attitude to any Junior.

SANDRA SUBERA leaves her pony tail to -----, no on second thought, she's going to take it with her.

MARY ELLEN STANEK wills her baton and position as drum majorette to Lois Chalupecky, who should have no trouble.

MARVIN HAVLIK leaves his opposite point of view to Frank Steckel.

JANET FRONK, "the devil in disguise," leaves the disguise to Joan Preslik.

MELVIN BURCH leaves his scientific mind to Jim Kelley.

JEAN SANTAS leaves her ability to keep a secret in circulation, to Mary Verbsky.

HANK SHORE wills his slimness to Joe Dooley.

BILL COX and BOB CLARK were going to will their cars to someone, but decided they needed them more.

DICK McCOIC leaves his talkative ways to the loud mouths of the Junior class.

BONITA BIRDSILL leaves her excessive energy to Karen Kaus.

MARY BOLINT wills her ability to be seen and not heard, to the freshman class.

ARLENE BRUCE leaves her "true to one man" attitude to Pat Briedenstein.

LEE FARRA leaves his qualities as a good senior, to Kurt Peckum.

GERALDINE LANGE was going to leave her beautiful voice to her sister Josephine, but she thought Jo didn't need it.

DELORES JaDOUL wills her halo and wings to Phil Eastman.

FRANCIS BLAHA, wills his paper route to some guy who likes to peddle a bike on cold, snowy, winter mornings.

ED VERBSKY wills his job of doing the chores on the farm, to his brother Dick, who has quite a few himself.

BERNARD CESNIK "I Have Nothing; I owe much," The rest I leave to the Junior Class.

To the Teachers of Hillsboro High School, we will our complaints about school work, and hope they will remember only the good things about us. To the Juniors, we leave our experience as Seniors, and hope they enjoy the role as Seniors as much as we did. To Mr. Shold, goes our highest estimation of him, and the hope that he will keep fond memories of us.
